

RUBY 1

CHARLIE

I need you to fix Lee. That's your business. This guy, when we were doing the job? This guy said some shit about the First Lady.

RUBY

Miss Jackie.

CHARLIE

You got that right. He didn't call her that. He's got some sick ideas.

RUBY

No one threatens that woman. She is a princess.

CHARLIE

Well, this is what I am telling you. I know they got him in stir, but if he gets in front of a camera... Jack, that poor woman has been through enough.

RUBY

I will fucking drill that pinko a new cum shoot. Hold on, first. Let me go talk to The Hat. The Texan okays it, you can call it done. This is how you do a job right, Charlie. Chain of command.

CHARLIE

I see your point.

RUBY

This is how the job shoulda been done in the first, Charlie.

CHARLIE

Right. Go talk to The Hat.

RUBY

This is how we settle in Chicago, friend.

CHARLIE

My head is killing me, Ruby. Go do the thing.

RUBY

Hey! Okie doke. Have a drink. Here, try a couple these they'll help your head. Later when you want to go to sleep take a couple of these with a shot of whiskey.

There is a black pill or two. But ease up on these, they are meant for horses. Go. Look at some cooze. I got work.
Gotta get my ten percent. Always the dollars, always the dollars. That Lee's got it coming.
